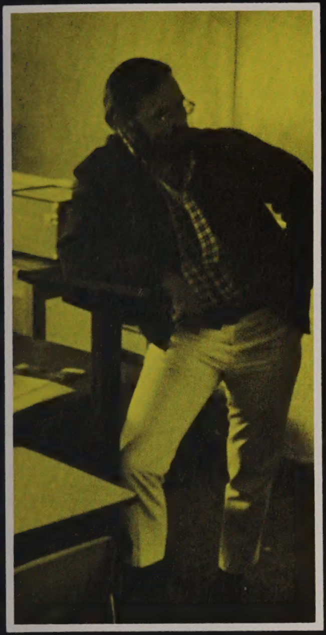
WITH our nation's efforts to conserve natural resources, we hear much about recycling or reusing glass, paper and aluminum. These recycled substances are produced again as glass, paper and aluminum, but not always in the same form. In the process, a paper bag may become wrapping paper. Essentially it is the same substance--but there is a difference.

HAVE you heard of recycled clothing and hair styles? No? Perhaps you have heard it referred to as Nostalgia. Does that ring a bell?



WE are experiencing a period of Nostalgia right now, whether you realize it or not! If you don't believe me, just get out your parents' yearbooks and pictures, or look at the composites hanging in the halls here at school.

YOU might get a big kick out of those long skirts, straight-legged pants, saddle shoes, and short hair cuts. But stop and think a minute. According to the fashion experts, the mini skirts and long hair are being replaced by the longer, knee length skirts and really short hair cuts. In other words, we are going back to the styles that our parents wore. Like it or not, we are caught smack-dab in the middle of a period of Nostalgia!

IT seems that rural areas, like good old Garrett County, are always the last to experience changes in styles and customs. But not here at Northern, not this time! You might say we were one jump ahead of the fashion because of Nostalgia Day--1974, here at Northern High School. Everyone had a good time and got many laughs at others dressed up in old-styled clothing. But actually, while having fun, we got a taste of what is coming in the future. Yes, it is coming even to Northern High School --maybe sooner than we expect it or WANT it!

MAYBE you're still not convinced. Just sit back and let the facts convince you here, in the 1974 NORTH STAR!

SCHOOL LIFE

SEPTEMBER

Brings Return to School Routine

P. 8--RIGHT: Tammy Warnick assists Mr. Davis as he takes the first informal senior portraits, beginning with Diana Durst. BELOW: September comes and so does the Northern football season. P. 9--UPPER LEFT: Huskie cheerleaders add sparkle to our first game. LOWER LEFT: Boredom sets in as Dave Bender reflects upon future school days. UPPER RIGHT: While recovering from a neck injury, Bubby Fauber keeps football statistics. LOWER RIGHT: Girls Phys. Ed. classes begin the year by participating in Speed-a-Way tournaments.

THE first month in school is a time to begin a new year. Juniors order their class rings, Student-Faculty Senate representatives are elected, and the band and chorus slate new officers. Minds are thrown into gear with the new career education filmstrips, on hand in our library. To complete this month, Kathy Harshbarger wins the nomination as student page to the General Assembly.

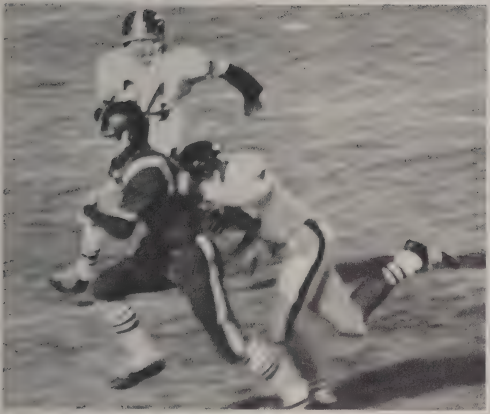
Huskie Struggle Continues

P. 10--UPPER LEFT: Coach Jack Lear prepares Ron Teats for battle. UPPER RIGHT: The Drill Team adds color and zest to the football games. LOWER LEFT: Tony Artice looks for an escape in the Northern-Bruce game. LOEWR RIGHT: Tammy Humberson looks to the crowd for support. P. 11--UPPER LEFT: Teen Challenge awakens Northern students to the dangers of drugs. UPPER RIGHT: Chris Lapham, Dave Lapole, Steve Duckworth, David Mabee, and Carolyn Bittinger are new comers to the school. LOWER LEFT: Tony Artice attempts and end sweep. LOWER RIGHT: Under a heavy pass rush, Ron Teats fires.

SUMMER warmth persists in this unseasonal weather, and football spectators find it quite agreeable. Northern opens its doors to many newcomers, and the Senior Class elects officers.

Students, Teachers Continue Studies

P. 12--BELOW: Madame Sally Buser tries to communicate with her students. LOWER LEFT: Miss Joanna Miller, faithful adviser of the North Star, concentrates on making the best better. UPPER RIGHT: Many headaches go with being editor of the NORTH STAR. Becky Beachy receives her fair share. CENTER RIGHT: Kathy Benedict rouses the spirit of the Huskie cheering crowd. LOWER RIGHT: The offense clashes with the defense as the Huskies strive for yardage. P. 13--UPPER LEFT: When the path seems almost clear for a Northern touchdown, the runner is hit from behind. UPPER RIGHT: Northern offense mulls over the next plan of attack. BELOW: The Huskies offense comes through with a touchdown!



THE LATTER part of the month shows signs of new people becoming part of our school. The month ends with strangers becoming friends, and with friends enriching their friendships.

OCTOBER

Highlights Nostalgic Homecoming

P. 14--RIGHT: Donna Hinebaugh returns to relinquish her crown to the new Homecoming Queen. UPPER RIGHT: Injuries to Darrell Evans disable him for several games. BELOW: Huskies are ready for defensive action. LOWER RIGHT: Carol Wengerd enthusiastically cheers the Huskies on. P. 15--UPPER LEFT: Peggy Wiley, escorted by her brother Steve, is crowned Homecoming Queen by Mr. Michael Sines. UPPER RIGHT: Mr. George Edwards anticipates the 20-0 victory of Bruce over Northern. LOWER LEFT: Huskies' offense "fires up" for action. LOWER RIGHT: Dave Davis, Northern's first drum major, makes his début on Homecoming night.

THE Alumni return home to a student body dressed in the style of the 50's on Homecoming Day. A pep rally sparks enthusiasm, our halftime show features songs of "The Happy Days," and yesteryears' Homecoming Queens return. The Victory Special, our new fight song, is presented by the Northern band. To conclude the evening the students dance to the "now" sounds of "Threshold" at the Homecoming Dance.

Autumn Glory
Festivities Brighten October

P. 16--UPPER RIGHT: Mrs. Donetta Nice brings a light of nostalgia into the Business Department. UPPER LEFT: Sharon Glass rests before the busy magazine campaign. BELOW: The Autumn Glory Queen and Court watch the parade. P. 17--UPPER RIGHT: Judy Teets attempts to block Kathy Benedict's kick to no avail. UPPER LEFT: Mrs. JoAnn Robinson discusses Speed-a-Way rules with officials, Bobbi Frazee, Millie Workmen, and Lois Barefoot. LOWER RIGHT: At the sound of the whistle, Linda Wengerd speeds forward for another Speed-a-Way kickoff. LOWER LEFT: Fourth period Speed-a-Way team discusses their strategy.

Activities of the school continue with an art lecture by Dr. Richard Kibey. Students are given college entrance exams, and Ernest Miller is commended for his performance on the 1973 test. Another senior, Sharon Glass, is elected as Northern's Garrett County Youth Council representative. Among the annual activities are the Yearbook auction and the magazine sales. Jr. High football players defeat Southern, 6 to 2. Students enjoy a display of Ventribquism by Julius E. Svertzer, Jr., Also, standing committees of the S.F.S. are appointed for the school year.

NOVEMBER

Features "Free to Be . . . You and Me"

LEFT: "Vrooooom! Vrooooom! I'm Harvie. RIGHT: Buddy Fauber and DeAnn McCutcheon set the mood of the play by discussing what it is to be a baby boy or girl. BELOW: Students of the Drama Mini-Course sing the theme song, "Free to Be . . . You and Me."

Thanksgiving Means a Turkey Hunt!

PAGE 20--TOP: Turkeyfoot is defeated! CENTER: Dave Davis lines up the Band for their performance during halftime at the Turkeyfoot game. LOWER LEFT: The Northern offense presses onward to victory. LOWER RIGHT: Greg Lawson and Dave Davis compare their newly acquired class rings. PAGE 21--UPPER: The Annapolis Brass Quintet holds a workshop for the band and chorus members. CENTER: One of the penalties during the Southern game seems to have caused quite a discussion. LOWER LEFT: Huskies offense tries violently but is defeated. LOWER RIGHT: The Annapolis Brass Quintet gives a presentation to music students at N.H.S.

This is not a time for the monthly quota of school days. Students were given a rest day on the fifth for the general election, a half day on the 13th for teachers' meetings, and again on the 27th for Thanksgiving vacation. "Ain't we got fun!"

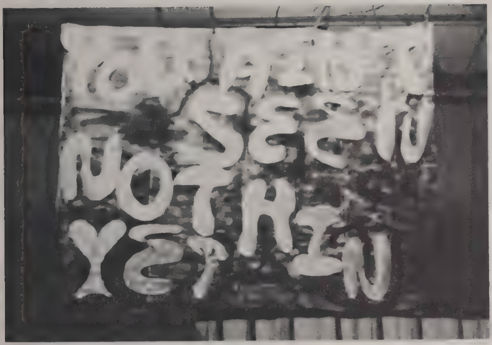
PAGE 22--TOP: Robert and Richard Knecht display their muscular abilities in an Antrim Bureau Show. CENTER: The Knecht family exhibits a sense of balance. BELOW: Mr. Knecht does a raised board act with his son, Richard. PAGE 23--UPPER LEFT: The theme of the Senior Dance is "You Ain't Seen Nothing Yet!" CENTER LEFT: The senior party includes ping-pong as an activity. CENTER RIGHT: Tired of dancing, several seniors decide to refresh themselves. LOWER LEFT: Instead of just one lamb, Mary has a whole flock--at N.H.S. LOWER RIGHT: Seniors meet to order graduation announcements and Senior Keys.



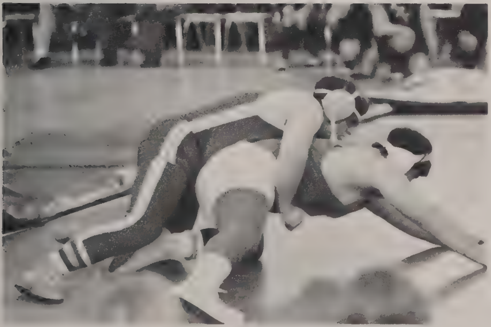
CHILD development is the theme for a Home Ec. class. Twelve three-to four-year-olds are cared for by students who learn how a pre-school child progresses. Not only do the Home Ec. students have fun, but all the school is delighted to have some young, fresh faces present.

DECEMBER

Dumps Snow on Garrett County

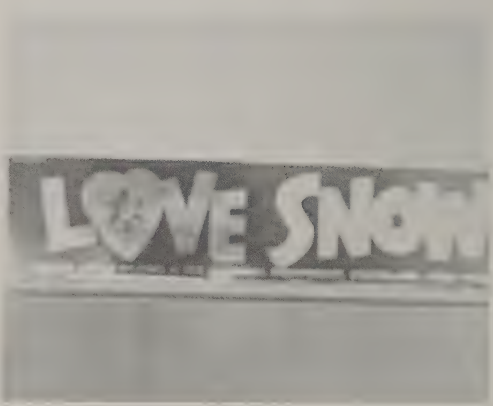
PAGE 24--BELOW: For days the trees bow their heads--many of them broken and twisted. UPPER RIGHT: Every twig and wire is laden with heavy snow. CENTER RIGHT: The snow, too heavy to drift, creates a wonderland decked with a whiteness that is thirty-three inches deep. LOWER RIGHT: Highways and bi-ways host cars abandoned by drivers who can go no farther. PAGE 25--TOP: Preceding the Northern-Southern match, the rules are explained to the captains of both team. CENTER LEFT: Jamie Sisler has his opponent in the position of a near-pin. LOWER LEFT: Larry Sebold rides his counterpart as they grapple for position. CENTER RIGHT: Fans clap and cheer as the referee raises Hughie Sisler's hand after a pin. LOWER RIGHT: Congratulations and advice are given as grapplers discuss the match.

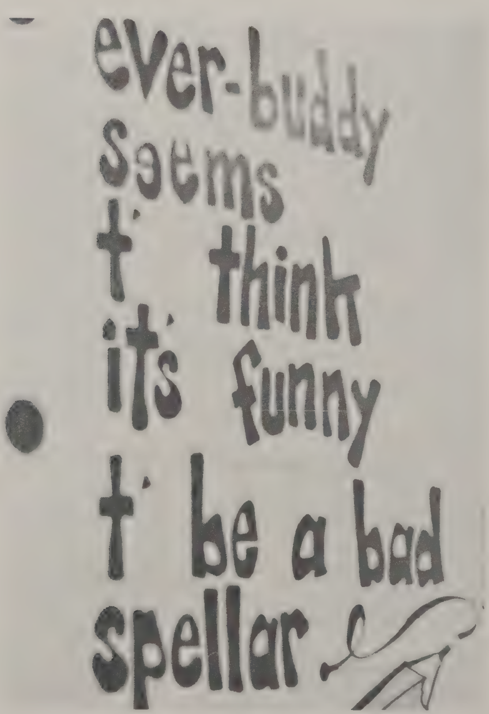
DECEMBER arrives and with it one of the largest snowfalls in several years. Due to the snow and lack of electricity, there is no school until December 6. Activities are canceled, among them the basketball game with Salisbury. As school returns to normal, the seniors take the SAT and the Betty Crocker test. Northern grapplers are defeated by A.H.S. by the score of 30-15. The basketball team scores a loss at the hands of Meyersdale. The game is lost in overtime, 62-58; J.V.'s lose 58-47. Looking to the future, the French Club has a meeting about the Christmas dance.

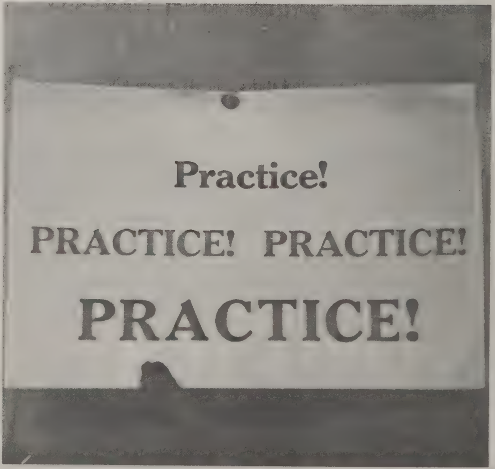


Musicians and Athletes Show Results of Practice

PAGE 26--LOWER LEFT: Miss Wucik displays an ironic poster in her Guidance Officer. UPPER RIGHT: Terry Galica and Mark Russell try to keep "a cool head." CENTER RIGHT: Mr. Bell shows his enthusiasm for this season's snow. LOWER RIGHT: The theme of our basketball teams is proudly displayed on a gym door. PAGE 27--UPPER LEFT: Northern's first class in string instruments display their abilities on their violins. CENTER LEFT: The Band, directed by Mr. David Zimmerman, plays favorite carols at the Christmas program. CENTER RIGHT: The J.V. Basketball team huddles for a strategy meeting during a timeout. LOWER RIGHT: Dave Bender attempts to convert a pressure foul shot as Mark Russell watches.







THE USUAL schedule is interrupted as the wrestlers score a crushing victory over Southern, 54-6. Despite hard practice, the Girls' Basketball team loses to Valley. Seniors are tested once again as they take the ACT. A sad note comes forth as Coaches Tom Vent and Andy Reed are injured in an automobile accident which leaves Mr. Vent hospitalized for months with severe leg injuries. Coach Reed becomes Varsity Basketball coach, and Mr. John Braskey returns to teach Mr. Vent's classes and to coach the J. V.'s. Because of scoreboard problems, the Huskies play the next "home" game at Mt. Savage--and are defeated.

Professional Drama Group Visits Northern

PAGE 28--UPPER RIGHT: The action slows a little as Dave Bender has a jumpball with an opponent. CENTER LEFT: Buddy Fauber arches another shot as we defeat Mountaineer. CENTER RIGHT: Dave Bender wins the Most Valuable Player Award for the Christmas Tournament. LOWER LEFT: Buddy Fauber, Mervin Yoder and Dave Bender receive trophies for the All-Star team. LOWER RIGHT: The Huskies go forward to receive the team trophy for winning in the Tournament. PAGE 29--UPPER LEFT: The villainous Bergella in "Flavio Betrayed" listens for another bit of gossip. LOWER LEFT: Flavio and Isabella engage in a deep discussion of their love for each other. LOWER RIGHT: Captain Fearsome has an enlightening talk with the hilarious Petroleno.

THE BASKETBALL team travels to Beall High and defeats them, while our wrestlers suffer a defeat at Meyersdale. The final day before Christmas vacation is celebrated by a program given by the choruses, the band, and the violin class. Following our final school day for 1974, a dance is sponsored by the French Club; music is supplied by The Peasants.

Christmas vacation is highlighted by a basketball tournament held here at N.H.S. with guest teams from Salisbury, Mountaineer, and Turkeyfoot. The Championship goes to Northern, Second Place to Salisbury, Third to Turkeyfoot, and Fourth to Mountaineer. Dave Bender is chosen M.V.P. in the tournament. All-Star Team Members are Buddy Fauber, Merv Yoder, and Dave Bender of N.H.S. Doug Otto of Salisbury, ana Jeffy Atzenhofer of Mountaineer.

JANUARY

Sees Variation in Sports and Academics

PAGE 30--UPPER LEFT: Becky Beachy studies twigs at Camp Hickory with the anatomy class. UPPER RIGHT: Doug Schlosnagle's mind is stimulated by a swift run in the crisp air. BELOW: Sally Beachy, Linda Wengerd, and Tammy Humberson work on coordination and rhythm in Modern Dance in Phys. Ed. LOWER RIGHT: Learning outdoors is fun, as shown by Gale Wengerd, Tammy Warnick and Cheryl Slagle. PAGE 31--UPPER LEFT: Tammy Humberson and Kim Bowers prepare to ride their donkeys during halftime in the Donkey Ballgame. UPPER RIGHT: Cheerleaders sponsor the Donkey Game between local fireman and WMSG disc jockeys. LOWER LEFT: Mervin Yoder struggles for a jump ball. LOWER RIGHT: Linda Wengerd attempts a foul shot against Bishop Walsh.

A NEW YEAR--a new start. What can be said which has not been said before? The F.F.A. starts their year with 100 members participating in a trip to the Pennsylvanis State Farm Show. Student achievements for '74 are not long in coming. Bell Bender places first in the Elks' tri-state Hoop School Free Throw Contest, and Rita Butler learns that she is Northern's winner of the Betty Crocker Award. CONGRATULATIONS!

School Bustles with Activity

PAGE 32--UPPER RIGHT: The school obtains a new scoreboard to relieve students of guessing at the score. CENTER LEFT: Seniors demonstrate dances of the '20's to the U.S. History class. CENTER RIGHT: What! LOWER LEFT: The girls' basketball trophy, won in a game against Southern, is placed in the showcase by DeAnn McCutcheon. LOWER RIGHT: Mr. Weese's English students, Gerald Weimer, Debbie Wahl, Nancy Yoder, and Aavid Maust, learn how to use the video-tape equipment. PAGE 33--UPPER LEFT: Winner of the oratorical contest, Stanley Schlosnagle, speaks to the Sr. High students and to the judges. UPPER RIGHT: Harvie Zuckerman drinks water to calm his nerves before the oratorical contest. BOTTOM: Taking advantage of the snow, David Blake and Mike Fratz ride their snowmobiles to school.

TIMES are hard, there is an economic slump, and jobs are slow in appearing. Yet Northern students can see a brighter side of life. Their band can march through the halls before sports events, and students can have fun at parties like the one sponsored by the God Squad. Then comes the end of the grading period--and report cards. Well, not all things can be good!

FEBRUARY IS FULL OF STUDENT INVOLVEMENT

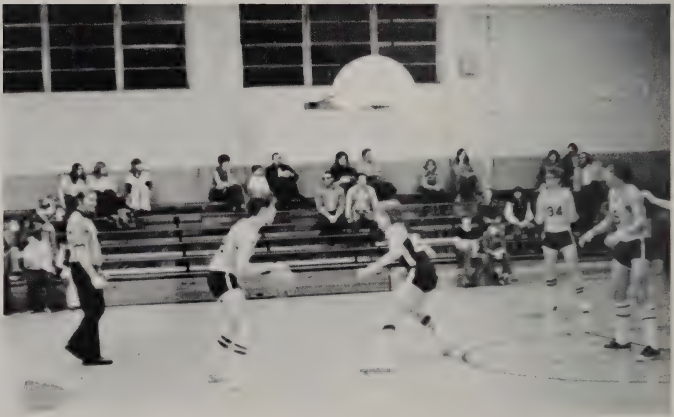
BASKETBALL VICTORIES NOTED

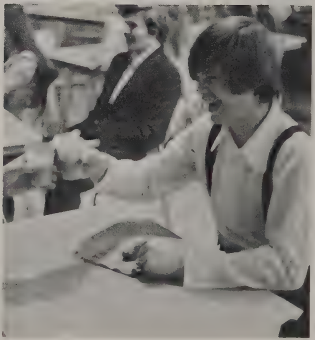


PAGE 36--UPPER RIGHT: Alan Skidmore scores another point in a winning J. V. game against Oldtown. RIGHT: Don Paugh, guarded by a Turkeyfoot player, looks for an opening in the J. V. game. BELOW: It isn't easy being a superstar as Mervin Yoder demonstrates. LOWER RIGHT: Ron Teets, with little time left, races towards another basket against Oldtown. PAGE 37--UPPER LEFT: In a game seen by Northern students, Peggy Wiley takes a long shot. LOWER LEFT: Dave Bender sells popcorn at the girls' game with Southern. LOWER RIGHT: This is an active struggle in Northern's two-point victory over Southern.

SPECIAL games and tournaments are the main sports events of February. A Varsity-Alumni game is played on the 14th, with the varsity winning. The basketball season ends with a winning game over Bruceton Mills, in which team members honor their parents. Nine wrestlers compete in the district tournaments at Frederick, and Jr. High Phys. Ed. students have their tournaments in the last week.

FEBRUARY IS BUSY FOR SENIORS

PAGE 38--UPPER RIGHT: Mrs. Pavone's room seemingly turns into an airport as Tim Butler pilots a paper airplane. CENTER: Mrs. Benyak instructs the Junior girls in serving the Senior Tea. LOWER LEFT: The Senior Tea gives seniors a chance to discuss their last year of high school. LOWER RIGHT: Doug Schlosnagle toasts his unknown friend during the Tea. PAGE 39--UPPER LEFT: Students in the mini-course on Writing the Research Paper use the facilities of the Ruth Enlow Library in Oakland. UPPER RIGHT: Paula Spear is crowned Northern's Heart Fund Queen at a benefit dance. BOTTOM: Mervin Yoder shoots in a close game against Beall, losing by only three points.



DURing the month, changes occur in the teaching staff. Mrs. Anna K. Beachy returns to school after recovering from a fall. We welcome Mr. Joseph McKenzie who fills the teaching position left by Mr. George Edwards when he becomes a County Commissioner. Students are also busy. Among other activities, students in the Religous Literature mini-course visit five churches in the area.

MARCH POINTS TO WINTERFEST

PAGE 40--UPPER LEFT: Jeanne Carstens devotes time to selling souvenirs for the Lions' Club during Winter fest. UPPER RIGHT: Mrs. Yunker sells native Bavarian foods. BELOW: Winterfest Queen, Donna Nutter, rides behind the Budweiser Clydesdale team owned by Anheuser-Busch, Inc. . PAGE 41--UPPER LEFT: A clown from the Ali-Ghan Shrine Club entertains the crowd with his antics. UPPER RIGHT: Jim Wampler cares for the Easter lilies grown and marketed by the Horticulture stuednts. BOTTOM: A different view of the halls can be taken after students go home for Easter vacation.

A MAIN event in Garrett County is the Second Annual Winterfest held in March. Winter activities are demonstrated with various races, contest, and games. Local high school bands perform for winter enthuasiasts. From local girls, a queen is chosen to preside over the festivities, with Northern students Sandy Beitzel and Paula Spear participating this year.

MONTH ROARS WITH NEW HAPPENINGS

CLASS PRAYER

Our Heavenly Father,
Our mistakes have been many, but we've made it through the last years by learning from them. Now that we are nearing an end to a very important part in our lives, we can be very thankful for the opportunity to go on.
Father, we are thankful that You have cared for us, guided us, and given us Your forgiveness when we failed to do our best in every situation.

May we always make wise and honest decisions and have a place in our hearts to forgive, to go forth, and to understand.

In the future let us bow before You, not only in times of stress and discouragement, but in times of thankfulness and in adoration.

We thank You for blessing us with Your love and will try to use what You have given us.

Our joys have been many, our troubles have been many, but our new lives await. Be with us to lead, guide and forgive in all things. Amen

Puppy

A puppy is an animal, which seems to sleep all day, at first; then he seems to play and play all day long. He chews up anything he can get a hold of.

--Esther Kolb

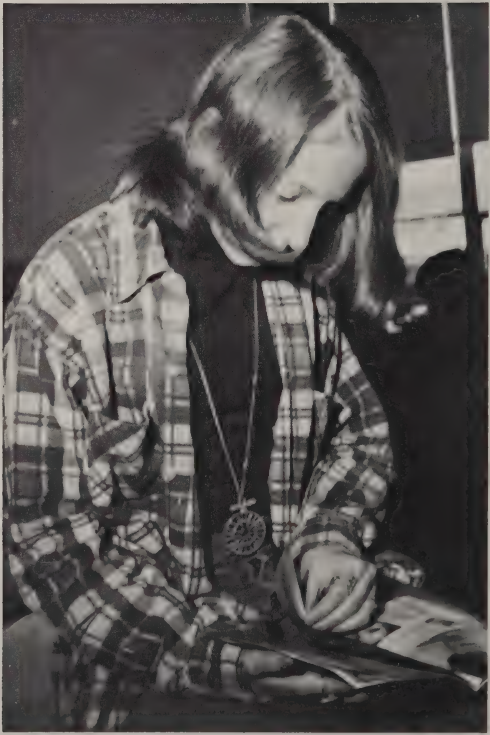
Senior Year

As our Senior year draws to an end,
We look back on our accomplichments,
We try to forget our failures.
This is a year to remember,
With its joys, heartaches, and laughter,
Some people react with hatred,
Some with love.
Some with deep feelings for their friends.
But you know,
It's your Senior year!

Kids may say it's great,
And at times it is,
But they don't realize it's hard,
Oh, so hard to leave your friends.
Some might make fun,
Ridicule and laugh at you for this,
But you know,
It's your Senior year!

Pictures, dinners, parties, and teas,
Are all a part of this.
Yearbooks, keys and then a diploma,
Are all combined to one thing,
Your Senior Year!!!

Debbie Wahl



My mind,
twisted, confused,
organized,
sharp,
soft,
rippling,
layered,
rushing,
swooping,
bouncing round,
I find myself.

Judy Teets

Never, Never Quit!

When everything goes wrong
And you feel like quitting,
Just remember,
Stay in there!

When you have one of those days
And you could just drop it,
Just remember,
Stick with it!

You'll never get there
If you always get discouraged,
So just remember,
Never, never quit!

Kelly Durst

What is a Friend?

A friend is someone who really cares,
When you need them they're always there,
If you're feeling a little down and out,
or even if you have some doubts.
A friend is someone who worries about you,
And wants to help you
no matter what you say or do.

Karen Murphy

used to feel that the time would never come to graduate ut now I feel as if the time is come too fast.

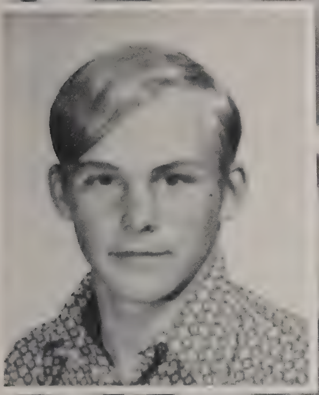
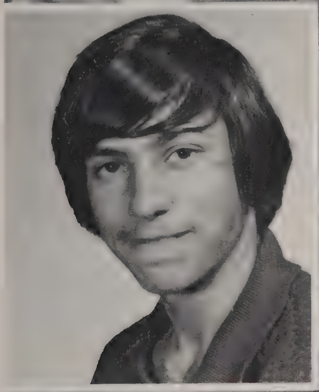
Bonnie Wagner

IN MEMORIAM

Blake Brenneman
Class of '76 Died 1975



Bill Bowser
Class of '75 Died 1974



Why must we always look upon death as being painful, ugly, dark, and cold, when it could be so peacefully beautiful?
Death--the reunion with everything and everyone.
